

Scientists wonder why woodpeckers sometimes leave a nest hole unfinished.

What is your hypothesis?

How would you test it?

What resources would you use?